MILK PRODUCERS

None to Providence. The milk producers who are sending milk to Providence held a meeting on Friday morning at the Chestnut Hill depot to talk over plans for obtaining the demands recently granted the producers in Boston, but which have not been forthcoming from Providence. Nathaniel Manning, the president of the association, and John Clarke were appointed a committee to go to Boston today (Saturday) to confer with John T. Whiting, president of the Providence Dairy company, to ascertain if a compromise cannot be reached. Pending this finding the producers voted to hold back sending their milk. The attendance at the meeting was large, comprising producers from Collarge, comprising producers from Col-chester, Hebron, Lebanon, Columbia, and other places.

VISITING DAY. Eighth Grade Pupils Heard in Declamations and Songs.

It was visiting day Friday at the town hall. The eighth grade pupils of the Natchaug, St. Joseph's, Windham street, Oaks and St. Mary's school and from various out of town districts were present, as well as all the pupils at the high school. The floor space of the hall was filled and the gallery contained many spectators.

The exercises were opened by Principal Maddox at 1 o'clock, who introduced the first speaker, Joseph Bernet of the Windham street school, who delivered the well known declamation, Eulogy on the Death of Adams and Jefferson. The selection was rendered Jefferson. The selection was rendered with spirit, winning the applause of the audience.

The second number was Fields For Labor, a poem, to which Miss Ruth Sweet of the Natchaug school did full justice. Miss Marion Jordan and Ruth Nichols of the high school then rendered a very pleasing duet. They responded with an encore which won applause.

Miss Elsie Hood of the Windham street school followed with a declamation, Lowell's Rheecus, a very beautiful story told in a pleasing way by the young lady who in connection with the recitation emphasized the fact that small things cannot be scorned.

Alfred Rivard of St. Mary's school read Life Is What We Make It. This oration was delivered in an especially Harold Sheehan of St. Joseph's school gave Rodney's Ride with good effect. Vitalis Thornberg of the Natchaug school followed with the selection The Comet, a humorous anecdote of our late celestial visitor. Miss Mary Rose Blanchette of the high school followed with a violin solo, rendered with her usual exquisite taste. This number won much applause.

The programme closed by the singing of America by the audience, followed by the Alma Mater. Principal Maddox then welcomed the incoming class and stated that the entrance examinations for this year will be the 75c Drain Pipe Causes Trouble. Charles W. Raynes, a wealthy cit izen of this city, was arraigned before Deputy Judge James A. Shea, Friday morning, charged with stealing a piece of soil pipe, valued at about 75 cents, from the yard in the rear of Moriarty & Rafferty's plumber shop, No. 41 church street, Thursday morning. Rayner pleaded not guilty, but the ev-idence was so conclusive against him that he was fined $7 and costs, the limit for that offence, which amounted to $13.20. This he paid.

Patrick F. Moriarty, a member of the firm of Moriarty & Rafferty, the principal witness in the case, told how he opened his store at 7 o'clock on Thursday morning. Shortly afterwards he say Payare excepting the street he saw Raynes crossing the street with something hidden under his coat. Raynes kept looking back and as he entered the alleyway between the Methodist church and the Pomeroy building Mr. Moriarty called to him and asked him what he had, Raynes and asked him what he had, Raynes answered; "A bit of pipe, but I'm going to pay for it."

Mr. Moriarty then ordered him to put the pipe back where he got it, and Raynes after he did so attempted to buy him off, with the promise of work, and begged him to say nothing about it. Raynes in his own behalf admitted taking the pipe, which he styled "old junk," but claimed he did not take it with the intention of stealing, as he intended to pay for it later,

On cross examination, Prosecuting Attorney E. Frank Rugbee brought out the fact that Raynes made no attempt to see whether any one was in the store after he took the pipe, and was attempting instead to get away without being seen. At this Raynes turned to Deputy Judge Shea and said he left the matter to his own judgment. he was g Judge Shea decided that it is understood that Raynes attempted to buy the pipe previous to stealing it, and was refused because the master plumbers felt that it would be helping out the striking plumbers.

Fined for Selling to Posted Men. Joseph Dubreuil and Eli Blanchette proprietors of a saloen at No. 27 Jackproprietors of a saloen at No. 27 Jackson street, were charged jointly with selling liquor to a man that had been posted according to law, by the selectmen. The case grew out of a recent Polish assault case, during the progress of which, it came out, that Joseph Gobeck, the plaintiff, had bought liquor. First Selectman S. A. Perkham recognized him as a man that had been posted and an investigation rebeen posted and an investigation re-sulted, which showed that he had ob-tained the liquor at Dubreuil and Elanchette's saloon, They were rep-resented by Charles A. Capen , who claimed that his clients were inno-cent, At the time the man had been posted they had talked it over with posted they had talked it over with their bartender, who had known the man. Prosecuting Attorney Bugbee, who was aided by Prosecuting Agent Addison J. Greenslit of Hampton, told of the origin of the case, after which he said the defendants had been between he their bartender who was trayed by their bartender, who was also a Pole. He therefore asked the judge not to refuse his certification to their license and to only impose a fine. Mr. Capen then explained that Gobek entered the saloon on June 3, the day in question, with another man and asked for a drink. He was re-fused and the other man then ordered two drinks and Gobek paid. Deputy two drinks and Gobek paid. Deputy Judge Shea imposed a fine of $25 and costs and directed that a certificate be issued, so that the license would not

"Am in better condition physically than I have been for years. My stomach, kidneys and liver are in fine shape," says fir. William, A. Burgess.

"While serving in the U. S. Army, 1898 to 1901, I contracted stomach and kidney trouble, from which I have suffered ever since, and for which I receive a pension. I tried many remedies, but none gave any noteworthy effect. About three months ago I began using Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey as a medicine. I have used three bottles and have gained fifteen pounds since I began using it. I am still using it, and I do not think there is any medicine made that is equal to it. My stomach, liver and kidneys are in better order than they have been for years, and if these three organs of the body are kept in order one will have few doctor bills. I cheerfully recommend Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey as a tonic, a stimulant and renovator of the whole system."-WILLIAM A. BURGESS, P. O. box 575, Danville, Ill.
